2010 SCSU FACULTY SCHOLAR AWARD

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

Applications are now being solicited for the 2010 SCSU Faculty Scholar Award. Conferred jointly by the Faculty Scholar Award Committee and the University President, the award recognizes scholarly and creative work of exceptional merit by a full-time member of the SCSU faculty. The award winner will receive a cash prize of $2500 and a commemorative plaque.

The work submitted in the application must 1) be a product such as, but not limited to, a book, article, invention, work of art or artistic performance; 2) have appeared within the past five years (i.e., not before January 2005); and 3) have won recognition by scholars and/or critics outside the CSU system. The award is for a single product (e.g. book, article or exhibition). Please note that only works that have already appeared will be considered for the award. Completed application packets (as described below) prepared by the author/creator of the work to be considered must accompany all nominations and be in the hands of the Committee Chair by 3:00 p.m. on Monday, April 5, 2010. The award recipient will be announced during the fall semester of 2010.

The 2010 Faculty Scholar Award Committee, elected by faculty referendum, will evaluate all completed applications. The Committee will base its decision upon the following criteria: 1) the intellectual and/or artistic merit of the endeavor; 2) the impact made by the work upon its field of study; 3) the degree to which the work is innovative in content, approach and/or methodology; 4) the work's scholarly or creative integrity; and 5) the social significance of the enterprise. Whenever warranted, the Committee will garner evaluations from outside experts to aid in its deliberations. If, in the view of the Committee, no application meets the above criteria, then no recommendation for the award will be made.
