

What's cooking for the next Practical Pedagogy Workshop,
Co-Sponsored by WAC?

Food (PIZZA) for Thought (Developing & Effectively Using RUBRICS)

YOU are invited to a P.I.E. (participant Idea Exchange) interactive & tasty roundtables for writing teachers on Wed, October 21 at 1:00 PM in the Common Room (Engleman 253).

- ❖ Want to learn how to create rubrics? Table Leader: Terry Bennett (Math)
- ❖ Having problems with your current rubric(s)? Table Leader: Steven Corbett (ENG)
- ❖ Have rubric(s) to share with others? Table Leader: Kate Marsland (PSY & WACC)

You simply need to come learn about and discuss issues related to rubric development, usage, and evaluation and our “pizza pie” group will collaborate on ways to support, sharpen and share your ideas.

This semi-structured gathering will be a comfortable place to learn about developing and effectively using Rubrics. Have a great rubric to share? Please bring it. Need copies? Email the original to wacc@southernct.edu ; We'll make copies for you and/or post yours to the WAC website with your permission.

Please R.S.V.P. to wacc@southernct.edu, so we can be sure to order enough pizza.
Last-minute walk-ins are welcome, too!
