

Declaration of a Minor in Women's Studies Southern Connecticut State University

The minor in Women's Studies consists of 18 credits taken in a variety of fields. Students are advised to begin their program with WMS 100: Dynamics of Sex, Race, and Class or WMS 215: Women in Society. WMS 215 and WMS 415: Contemporary Feminist Theories are required for the minor. To officially register, students must submit this completed form to the Women's Studies Program, Engleman B229. For more information, please call (203) 392-6133 or email womenstudies@southernct.edu.

DATE: _____

NAME: _____ Student ID#: _____

MAILING ADDRESS: _____

PHONE #(s): _____

EMAIL: _____

MAJOR: _____ OTHER MINOR(s): _____

Women's Studies course(s) taken/planning to take:

_____ semester/year: _____

_____ semester/year: _____

_____ semester/year: _____

_____ semester/year: _____

_____ semester/year: _____

EXPECTED DATE OF GRADUATION: _____

Do you plan to pursue graduate level studies? If yes, in what discipline? At what university?

(Optional) What are your career plans other than advanced study?

