

Summer Semester 2010
Special Topics Course Descriptions

ITA 398-01 – Love Books in the Renaissance

Summer 2010

This course is designed to enhance students' understanding of Italian Renaissance society and culture. Through the analyses of texts that focus primarily on love and its implications, students will explore topics such as the moral and ethical principles underpinning that society; the historical and political contexts in which those texts were produced; and the geographic, architectural, and artistic settings in which they developed. Specific emphasis placed on honing analytical and written skills.

Prerequisite(s): None. Palma

JRN 298-01 – Introduction to Opinion and Column Writing

Summer 2010

Introduction to the knowledge and skills for writing opinions and columns for print and online publications.

Prerequisite(s): ENG 112. Harris