

Southern Connecticut State University
Gerald and Regina Barbaresi Education Scholarship Fund

The Gerald and Regina Barbaresi Education Scholarship Fund was established by Regina Lipowski Barbaresi, , 51, and her late husband Gerald Barbaresi, , 53, in appreciation of the education they both received from New Haven State Teachers College now Southern Connecticut State University. This education provided a solid foundation for their life work in working with children. The scholarship fund shall be used to assist Education majors attending Southern Connecticut State University to enable the recipients to carry on this important work.

Scholarship Criteria

- The student(s) must be a full time undergraduate student as defined by the University and entering his/her junior or senior year.
- The student(s) must be majoring in Education and be of high academic standing.
- The student(s) contributions to the University and/or the community will also be considered.
- The student must be in financial need.