

Southern Connecticut State University Roger P.
Blood Jr. Memorial Scholarship Fund

The Roger P. Blood Jr. Memorial Scholarship Fund was established by Ida M. Caccese in memory of her son. Roger received a Master's Degree in English in 1987 from Southern Connecticut State University. He returned to college for his graduate work as an older student receiving his degree at the age of 52.

The fund will be used to assist graduate students at Southern Connecticut State University majoring in English. Preference will be given to students 35 years of age or older.

Scholarship Conditions

1. The student(s) must be a new student accepted to a Master's degree program in English.
2. The student(s) must be of high academic standing.
- 3 .. The student(s) involvement in the community and service-related organizations will also be considered.