The James M. DelVecchio Memorial Endowed Scholarship Fund

The James M. DelVecchio Memorial Endowed Scholarship Fund was established by his son, James M. DelVecchio, Jr. and his loving family in honor of his lifelong involvement with athletics. Mr. DelVecchio played semi-pro basketball with many New Haven area teams and while at Commercial High School he was captain of both the basketball and football teams in 1932 and 1933. He was a charter member of the Village Unity League and in 1980 he was inducted into the New Haven Tap-Off Club Hall of Fame for accomplishments in athletics. This fund was formerly known as the James M. DelVecchio Memorial Scholarship and then the James M. DelVecchio Football Captains Scholarship Fund. It has been re-established as an endowed scholarship honoring James M. DelVecchio with a minimum of $10,000.
