

Southern Connecticut State University
Jess L. Dow Football Awards Endowment

The Jess L. Dow Football Awards Endowment has been established by Jess L. Dow to provide the Football program with funds to make annual awards to student athletes in blocking and tackling at Southern Connecticut State University_ Any additional funds available will be used for scholarship support in the Football program at Southern Connecticut State University
Conditions

The funds available will be used for annual awards in blocking and tackling. The awards will also allow us to honor Jess L. Dow and his contributions to the athletic program at Southern.

The team and its coaching staff will determine the selection of these recipients.

Any additional available funds will be used for scholarship purposes and the coaching staff will select the student athletes.
