

Southern Connecticut State University
Manson Van B. Jennings Memorial Scholarship
Fund

The Manson Van B. Jennings Scholarship Fund was established in honor of the late President Emeritus Manson Van B. Jennings who served as President from 1971 to 1981. He labored nobly to insure continued development and promote improvement. During his tenure the College expanded its educational offerings in professional studies and liberal arts setting the stage for the institution to become a multi-purpose University. In honor of his dedicated service and many accomplishments, the Dr. Manson Van B. Jennings Science Grant was established in 1982. Upon Dr. Jennings' death in March 1999 his brother, Addison Jennings, revised the grant.
