Career Myths and Facts

Myth

Students should know what they are majoring in when they first enter college.

Fact!

Many students entering into college have no idea what they would like to major in. For some, it may take students up to their sophomore year to declare a major. However, Career Services can help guide you in this decision making process.

Myth

I should major in something that will get me a high paying job.

Fact!

As much as it is always nice to make money, make sure you choose a major that you will enjoy! Being happy in your career path is much more important than the amount of money you make.

- Have hair tidy; not too much hairspray or gel.
- Keep nails short. Women may wear a neutral polish.
- Simple jewelry.
- Polish your shoes; scuffs and scrapes endorse a poor image.
- Match shoes to your outfit; dark and solid colors are best.
- For women: Skirt or pants suit. Skirts must be below the knee.
- For men: Crisp and clean. Dark & solid colors are most appropriate.
