

Area: Program Administration
Subject: Code of Ethics
Policy No.: 070

POLICY

It is the policy of the Center for Communication Disorders that all members of the Center Staff will abide by the professional Code of Ethics of both the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association and of the Connecticut Speech-Language-Hearing Association.

PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to ensure that all staff demonstrate professional and ethical behavior which should characterize all service professional, in order to provide the public with the highest quality of service in communication disorders.

PROCEDURES

1. The Center will access on-line copies of the current Code of Ethics of both ASHA and CSHA.
2. During the annual professional evaluation, matters of ethical conduct will be considered for review by the Center Director.