

OTHER SCSU RESOURCES

ADA/504 Compliance Officer/ Diversity and Equity Programs Schwartz Hall –100 Telephone: 392-5491	The ADA Compliance Officer reports to the President of the university and is responsible for developing, coordinating, monitoring and reporting on affirmative action plans and 504, ADA and Title IX compliance activities. Faculty, staff, students and visitors to the campus are encouraged to report any architectural, programmatic or attitudinal barrier that appears to deny full participation to any program, benefit or service offered by the university.
Center for Career Services Schwartz Hall –102 Telephone: 392-6536	The Center for Career Services offers comprehensive career resources for all students. Its mission is to connect students to their future by assisting with all aspects of employment, such as experience through cooperative education, full-time or part-time employment or information about career opportunities and employers.
Center for Communication Disorders Davis Hall – B12 Telephone: 392-5954	The Center for Communication Disorders offers free evaluation and treatment of voice, speech, language and hearing problems to students enrolled at Southern Connecticut State University. Appointments may be made in writing, by telephone or in person.
Lift-Equipped Campus Shuttle University Police Telephone: 392-5375	A lift-equipped shuttle is available for students, staff or visitors whose disability (temporary or permanent) prevents them from utilizing the regular shuttle service. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Students should register with the DRC if they need transportation around campus and have a permanent disability that affects their ability to walk or use the regular Campus shuttle. ■ Students' friends are welcome to share the ride when space permits. ■ Students who have a temporary disability must register through the Student Health Office to qualify for this service. ■ In inclement weather, make sure to allow extra time for travel. ■ To arrange transportation, students call University Police at 392-5375 at least 30 minutes before they need to arrive at a destination. This is contingent on there being sufficient space to accommodate all requests. Rides are given on a first-come, first-served basis. The shuttle is available 7:30 a.m.- 3:00 a.m. , Monday through Thursday; and Friday, 7:30 a.m. - 2:30 p.m.

Counseling Center

Engleman Hall – B219
Telephone: 392-5475

Counselors are available to help students adjust to and succeed at Southern. Counseling Services offers confidential support with many personal, academic and career concerns.