

Submission Guidelines for the Inaugural Issue of NOCTUA REVIEW

The Graduate Arts and Literary Magazine of Southern Connecticut State University slated for Spring 2008 publication

→Deadline: December 20, 2007 ←

Cover Page for Submissions must include the following:

- Student name
- Student status (part or fulltime) and student number
- email address
- Mailing address
- Genre and title(s) of work(s)

Please submit a *separate cover sheet with each genre (poetry, fiction, etc.) you submit.

Please include a title for each work.

Please note on the cover sheet whether any submission has won a contest at SCSU.

Please submit 2 copies of each submission, typed in 10- to 12- point font (handwritten submissions will not be accepted).

Please do not submit any work that has appeared in Folio or another SCSU publication.

Please do not include your name or other identifying information on your submissions.

Poetry: You may submit up to five pages of poetry, only one poem per page but one poem may be longer than one page. Please note the number of lines at the beginning of each poem.

Fiction: You may submit up to three stories. The combined length for all work you submit in this genre must total 5000 words or fewer. Please note the number of words the story contains on the first page of each story.

Creative Nonfiction: You may submit up to two pieces of creative nonfiction. The combined length for all work you submit in this genre must total 4000 words or fewer. Please note the number of words at the beginning of each work of nonfiction.

One-Act Plays: You may submit one work of drama or comedy in this category. Only one-act plays will be considered.

WHERE? Please place submissions in an envelope marked NOCTUA REVIEW in Lois Church's mailbox in the English department mailroom or slide a marked envelope under the door of Engleman D-237 by 3 PM, December 20, 2007.

For submission guidelines for visual art (or with questions or comments), email noctua.review@gmail.com