

A FULBRIGHT SCHOLAR PRESENTATION

LIVING NEXT DOOR TO

China

- What are the implications of sharing a border with a rising global superpower?
- What is China's cultural impact on its closest neighbors?
- Does the Chinese way of life spread beyond its own borders?
- How might the rise of China affect global policy and politics?

SPECIAL GUEST
DR. OLGA FLESHLER

Dr. Olga Fleshler is a Russian Federation Fulbright Visiting Scholar at Southern Connecticut State University. She has a Ph.D. in Philology, and is a professor of English and International Relations at Zabaikalski National University, in the city of Chita, East Siberia, Russia.

WEDNESDAY,
DECEMBER 7, 2011

1:10 - 2:00 p.m.
Engleman Hall D 253
the English Common Room

SPONSORED BY INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMS