EMMANUEL'S GIFT

DIRECTED BY

Lisa Lax & Nancy Stern

PRODUCED BY

Oprah Winfrey

GHANA ■ 2005

In Ghana, West Africa, the disabled are cast out of society or hidden away and expected to beg on the streets for the duration of their lives. Emmanuel Ofose Yeboah is a young man who was born with a severely deformed leg who set out to change the perception of being "disabled." Against incredible odds Emmanuel rode a bike donated by the Challenged Athletes Foundation across Ghana to demonstrate the valuable contributions that the disabled can make to society.

All films shown with English subtitles.
