

Questions!
Questions!
Questions!

Strategies to Help Your Students Generate Scientific Research Questions

Professional Development Workshop for Grade 9-12 Science
Teachers

Saturday, January 23, 2010

9:00 am to 1:00 pm

Jennings Hall, Southern Connecticut State University

(Participants to receive a $75 stipend upon completion of the workshop. Lunch included.)

The application is available electronically at <http://www.southernct.edu/physics/teacherprofessionaldevelopment/> or by contacting Dr. Broadbridge (christine.broadbridge@yale.edu).

Please submit your application electronically by January 11, 2010 to crisp.workshop@gmail.com

Center for Research on Interface Structures and Phenomena
An NSF-funded Materials Research Science & Engineering Center
Yale University • Southern Connecticut State University