

The Women's Center and the Multicultural Center
Presents:

Jürküch Jameswal Atem

Join us for a
Movie Screening of
Lost Boys of Sudan
Tuesday, Feb. 16
Adanti Student Center Theatre
5 p.m.

Recognized as one of the Lost Boys of Sudan, Jürküch Jameswal Atem calls himself A Seed of New Sudan. Trained as a child soldier, he is war survivor, and currently is a student at Quinnipiac University working towards developing a non-profit organization, Seeds of New Sudan and Friends to benefit Southern Sudan in a variety of ways, including education and healthcare. Please join us for an inspiring lecture as presented by Jürküch Jameswal Atem.

Adanti Student Student Center Theatre
Tuesday, February 16, 2010
•7:30 p.m.

For more information, contact Starsheemar Byrum at 203.392.5786
Co-Sponsored by the Women's Center and Multicultural Office
In Support of 64-Days of Non-Violence