About the Fair

The Women & Girls' Fair is in conjunction with "Women and Labor: At Home, At Work, Around the Globe" at Southern Connecticut State University. The fair will be open from 1:00 — 5:30 on Friday and 8:30 — 5:30 Saturday, April 20th and 21st, 2012. Vendors should arrive at least one hour before the fair opens each day to set up their table(s). The Fair will be held indoors. Exhibitors must have insurance, be responsible for their own exhibits, and accept all responsibility for loss or damage to their wares. Southern Connecticut State University (SCSU) and the Women's Studies Program will not be responsible for any theft, loss or damage to exhibits and/or merchandise. Exhibitors without insurance will be required to sign a waiver form.

Types of Exhibit Space

Vendors are offered one, six-foot table for the cost of the exhibit. An additional table will cost double. Vendors are responsible for the decoration and display at each table. Tables may be attended or unattended; this does not affect the price. All vendors are responsible for the setup and breakdown of their table. Any materials left behind will not be returned to the vendor and will be distributed to the campus or discarded.

Applying for vending space
