Haas, Sladen Capture Titles At Second Annual Run For A Cure

ROXBURY - Nicholas Haas, 18, outran three veteran racers Thursday, Nov. 28, to win the second annual Run For A Cure over a challenging five-kilometer (3.1-mile) course.

Haas finished the layout, which included a trip up the steep hill on Chalybes Road, in 17 minutes, 18 seconds.

Dave Dunleavy, 47, of Kent placed second in 17:25. Dunleavy, a standout 30 years ago at Brookfield High School, has won several local races, including the Kent Pumpkin Run.

Mike Abraham, 43, of Woodbury took third in 17:33. The New Milford High School boys' cross country coach leads the standings this season in the weekly Roxbury Road Race Series, which concludes Dec. 7.

Jon Chesto, 31, a former standout at Pomperaug High School in Southbury and Wesleyan University in Middletown, finished fourth in 17:40.

Sarah Sladen, 21, was the first female finisher and placed 13th overall in 19:15.

There were 103 finishers in the race, which was co-sponsored by the Roxbury Recreation Commission, the Congregational Church of Roxbury and the Roxbury Road Race Series to benefit the New Milford Hospital Columbia-Presbyterian Regional Cancer Center.

A fun run-walk was held before the race.
