

SOUTHERN CONNECTICUT STATE UNIVERSITY

TUITION & FEE DEFINITIONS

FULL-TIME

Tuition is the cost of the educational and instructional expenses associated with the full-time courses.

University Fee is used to support the costs associated with the maintaining and repairing of student facilities (buildings).

University General Fee supports several operational costs, such as those associated with intercollegiate athletics, the student center, student ID processing, accident insurance coverage, and shuttle bus services.

Media Fee supports student media publications and organizations such as student newspaper, student literary magazine, and student radio station.

Student Activity Fee is used to support university recognized clubs, student center programs, and student functions.

PART-TIME

Tuition is the cost of the educational and instructional expenses associated with the part-time courses.

General University Fee is used to support the costs associated with maintaining and repairing student facilities (buildings), student id processing, and other services provided to part-time students.

Registration Fee is charged each semester for part-time course registration.

INTERSESSION

Extension Course Fee is assessed instead of semester based tuition and fees, during the intersessions (summer/winter/spring break). The extension course fee is the equivalent of part-time semester based tuition + general university fee.

Registration Fee is charged each intersession for part-time course registration.
