

Honors 232 – Reform & Its Nemesis: The American Experience

This course examines post-Civil War American political institutions with a focus on the questions why there is no socialism in the United States. We explore America's divergent path from European state and nation-building. 3 credits.