

Session 8 cont'd

3:40-4:10 Peter Nekola, The Newberry Library
On the Geological Agency of Winds & Tides

4:10-4:40 Joseph Tatarewicz, University of Maryland, Baltimore County
Terrestrial, Extraterrestrial, and Interstellar Tidal Spaces

4:40-4:50 Break

4:50-6:20 Session 9
Chair: Christine Petto, Southern CT State University
Nature's Ebb & Flow

4:50-5:20 Charlie Hailey, University of Florida
Drowned karst, glass-bottom boats, mermaid shows, and other architectural stories from Florida's Nature Coast

5:20-5:50 Troy Paddock, Southern CT State
The Ebb & Flow of Anachronism: the Mosel and Humanity's Horizons of Expectations

5:50-6:20 Mary M. Bethory Vidaver, Harvard University
Mountains, Coastlines, and Migrations: The Tidal Pull of Virginia Space and Place in the Emergence of Conservative Religious Politics

6:30-7:15 Business Meeting

Sunday April 19th

Conference participants depart.

CHRISTOPHER NEWPORT UNIVERSITY

PRESENTS

The Eleventh Annual International Association for the Study of Environment, Space, and Place Conference

2015 Program Co-Chairs:

Kip Redick, Christopher Newport University
Troy Paddock, Southern CT State University
Christine Petto, Southern CT State University

Session 6 cont'd

11:40-12:10 Trevor Hoag, Christopher Newport University
The Impossible Coming Wave: Traversing the Tidal Spaces between Life and Death

12:10-1:25 LUNCH

1:30-3:00
Session 7: Turning the Tides
Chair: Troy Paddock, Southern CT State University

1:30-2:00 Vladimir Mikadze, McGill University
Guerilla Gardening & Public Space-making in Montreal, Canada: Ephemeral Spaces as a Ground for Humility-driven Public Space Infrastructure

2:00-2:30 Sallie Hambright-Belue & D. Travers Scott, Clemson University
Taxonomies of the Arts and the Performing Arts

2:30-3:00 Richard L. Wilson, University of Maryland, Baltimore County
Silver Stream, Ocean and What is In-between

3:00-3:10 Refreshment Break

3:10-4:40
Session 8: The Ebb & Flow of Action & Agency
Chair: Jason Matzke, Mary Washington University

3:10-3:40 Elizabeth Jelinek, Christopher Newport University
Tidal Flux in Plato

Saturday, April 18th
Luten Hall Atrium, 3rd Floor

(8:00am—Noon Registration)

8:00-9:00 Refreshments & Pastry

9:00-10:30
Session 5: Ebb & Flow on Global Scale
Chair: Charlie Hailey, University of Florida

9:00-9:30 Andria Timmmer, Christopher Newport University
The Place-Based Ethics of Sustainability
Redefining Health: A Place-based Response to the Global Food Economy

9:30-10:00 Jason Matzke, Mary Washington University
Imagination in Place-Based Environmental Ethics

10:00-10:30 James Olusegun Adeyeri, Lagos State University
Oil, Conflict and Sustainable Development in Nigeria

10:30-10:40 Refreshment Break

10:40-12:10
Session 6: Ebb & Flow of Being
Chair: Kip Redick, Christopher Newport University

10:40-11:10 John Murungi, Towson University
Phenomenology of the Beach

11:10-11:40 Natasha Lushetich, Exeter University
The Tides of Power: No Border, No Resistance, No Alterity

Program Schedule
Friday, April 17th
Luten Hall Atrium, 3rd Floor

(7:30 am-5:00 pm Registration)

7:30-8:30 Refreshments & Pastry

8:10-8:30 Welcoming Remarks
Dean Lori Underwood
Dean of Arts & Humanities

Troy Paddock, President, IASESP
Southern CT State University

Kip Redick, Host
Christopher Newport University

8:30-10:30
Session 1:
Chair: Troy Paddock, Southern CT State University

Alex Zukas, National University
Littoral Spaces, Anchorages, and Port Cities in the Maps of Herman Moll

Lorna Lueker Zukas, National University
The Ebb & Flow of Development Assistance: Gender NGOs and other Feminist Networks in Zimbabwe

John Scott, Memorial University
Tidal Spaces . . . of the Mind

10:30-10:45 Refreshment Break

10:45-12:15
Session 2: Human Construction against the Tides
Chair: Peter Nekola, The Newberry Library

10:45-11:15 Christine Petto, Southern CT State University
Dutch Polders & English Fens

11:15-11:45 Seth Binsted, SUNY Stony Brook
The Atlantic Wall and the Militarization of Tidal Spaces

11:45-12:15 Ingo Heidbrink, Old Dominion University
Construction against the Tides: Deep-Water Port Projects at the German North Sea Coast

12:15-1:30 LUNCH

1:45-3:15
Session 3: Managing the Flow of Change
Chair: Richard L. Wilson, University of Maryland, Baltimore County

1:45-2:15 Jeffrey Webb, Huntington University
The Lost Towns of Salamonie: Seasonal Flooding, Flood Control, and the Modern Transformation of the Wabash Drainage Area

2:15-2:45 John C. Finn & Elexus Buckner
Christopher Newport University
Bridging Past and Present: The Cultural Landscapes of Antietam National Battlefield

Session 3 cont'd

2:45-3:15 Cheryl Hendry, Montana State University
Building Better Meadowlands: A GIS Analysis of Industrial Development in the Hackensack Meadowlands

3:15-3:25 Refreshment Break

3:25-4:55
Session 4: Responsible Ebb & Flow
Chair: Joseph Tatarewicz, University of Maryland, Baltimore County

3:25-3:55 Kip Redick, Christopher Newport University
Ephemeral Spaces Calling me into Question: Responding to the Spirit Of the Tide

3:55-4:25 Caroline Redick, Lee University
Totality and Tidal Spaces: A Theology of Wilderness

4:25-4:55 Kelly Garner, Independent Scholar
Outdoor Adventure Education in the Age of STEM: Bringing Students to the Shores of the Unknown

5:00-6:00 Estuarine Poetry Voicing the Tides
Jay Paul, Trevor Hoag, and Kip Redick
Christopher Newport University

6:30 Group Dinner—TBA