CALL FOR CONFERENCE PARTICIPATION

*Conference Theme: Returning to Our Roots,
Social Justice Challenges in 2006*

To respond to this Call for Participation, please email a proposal by April 1, 2006 to:
Herman Curiel, Conference Committee Chairperson,
University of Oklahoma, hcuriel@ou.edu

Agency-based social workers and human service workers, social work students, and activists with community-based organizations, especially in the Chicago area, are particularly encouraged to send in proposals. Please include the following:

- Cover page indicating names, addresses, and affiliations of all presenters.
- 250 word proposal linked to the conference theme and/or the principles of SWAA (see www.socialwelfareactionalliance.org).
- Please describe how the participation of attendees will be achieved (sample questions to stimulate discussion, etc.). Also, please indicate whether the format is a workshop, a panel presentation, or a paper.
- 50 word abstract to be used in the conference program.

Proposals will be responded to as soon as possible after being received, although the exact day and time of presentation can't be determined until all proposals are received. We reserve the right to schedule panel presentations and papers in combined sessions. For questions about proposals, please contact Herman Curiel at 405-325-1406. We regret we are unable to provide complementary registration to presenters. Registration is required within two weeks of acceptance of proposal, but is encouraged along with the proposal. See registration form for housing, volunteering and subsidized registration information.
