

WHAT'S NEW IN ASD IN THE NORTHEAST REGION

October 14th, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Adanti Student Center

Southern Connecticut State University

Presenters:

Fred Volkmar, MD

New Models of Medical and Mental Health for Adults and Youth with ASD

John Molteni, PhD

Acceptance and Commitment Therapy/Treatment - Developing Psychological Flexibility within a Values-Based Framework

Kate Wallis, MD

A Roadmap for Equity in Autism Diagnosis and Care

Christopher McDougale, MD

The Psychopharmacology of Autism Spectrum Disorder

Adam Naples, PhD

Measurement in Neuropsychiatric Biomarkers in Autism

Susanne Macari, PhD

Early development in autism.

Jeff Forte, JD

Connecticut's New IEP, CT-SEDS What's It All About

Panel Discussion

Skills and Strategies for a Successful Transition to Adulthood

Lauren Tucker, Ed.D

Essential Technology for Life and Learning

The conference will cover a range of new developments in autism diagnosis, treatment, and research.

Educators, autistic individuals, and their families, health care and other professionals, as well as those interested in research, are encouraged to attend.

Registration Fee $100

Includes box lunch

Register at <https://bit.ly/ASD-CenterStore>